TORONTO, March 11th, 1918.

Dear Sir Robert Falconer,-

In placing the question of the Spanish language before my colleagues, as I promised your deputation I would do, it occurs to me that a memorandum of the remarks made by Professor Buchanan should accompany other documents in the case. His information was of practical value, and I should be very glad if you will kindly ask him to send me the substance of it.

Yours very truly,

G. Howard Ferguson

Acting Minister of Education.
